

I am in favor of satellite radio continuing to broadcast traffic and weather reports. When travelling I come across many areas that regular broadcast radio will not reach my vehicle but I can receive a satellite signal. I also have areas where satellite signals cannot penetrate. In essence I need both technologies to be able to hear the traffic and weather reports.